- Take the stairs.
- Walk the hallway to clear your head.
- Use the restrooms farther from your work station.
- Park farther away from the entrance.
- Wear comfortable shoes and clothes that make it easy to move.
- Take breaks to move, even set an alarm to remind you to hop up.
- Keep track of your steps, a low step count will inspire you to get moving!

For AHRC Individuals:

- Teams or groups will be broken down by residence or program attended.
- Each team will need a designated team captain and a team name.
- Everyone is able to participate in the movement challenge! So it is crucial that we come up with creative ways to move and we encourage and support each other in the process!
- Incentives like a special lunch or dinner will be awarded to the top groups!

What Can AHRC Individuals Do To Improve Their Health Alongside AHRC Staff?

Meditation

To combat stress and anxiety

Stretching

For increased movement and flexibility

Mental Health Resources

For more peaceful sleep and wakeup routines

Fitness & Workout Modifications

Overall emphasis on fitness mindfulness and inclusion for all regardless of physical ability and challenges

Health Education

Providing more knowledge on simple healthy changes or additions to daily routines, and why it's important to do so.

Think Beyond Just Exercise!

Employees often spend several hours a day seated at their desks, and it can be challenging to incorporate exercise when faced with a hectic schedule.

Lack of exercise and a sedentary lifestyle have a negative impact on mood, work performance, and long-term health.

Although this challenge is to promote movement and taking more steps, we encourage you to think about your health as a whole, aside from only physical fitness.

Self care and stress management are just some of the areas that contribute to your overall health.
